Dear Sir or madame:

I am concerned by the caption in this case that there may be an issue that needs to be addressed. In naming individuals, or agents of an authority, I did not mean that the action apply to them exclusively. I think, perhaps, that it needs to be clarified that the individual being named should be held accountable for his/her actions as far as their own responsibility in as far as the extent that they were actually representing the agency, or were influenced by their own, personal feeling and character, including but not limited to possible prejudice, or malice, in their own duties which are endorsed by the agenc(ies).

Thank you very much
